ANOTHER FATAL ACCIDENT ON THE WEST END

As a result of the blowing up of the boiler on engine No. 982 at McConico Junction, Ariz., early Saturday morning, Engineer F. C. Cope and Fireman C. B. Bryant were almost instantly killed and the engine completely wrecked. The engine was pulling a heavy freight train from Needles to Kingman and while bowling along at a pretty good clip, the explosion occurred without a moment's warning. The boiler was blown a hundred feet from the track, together with the bodies of the engine crew. The train came to a stop almost immediately and no other damage was done. The dead engineer resided in Needles, where he has a wife. Fireman Bryant was unmarried and a resident of Kingman. The accident is supposed to have been caused by a leaky boiler.

BIG IMPROVEMENTS ON RIO GRANDE DIVISION

Work has been commenced on the rebuilding of the Rio Grande division of the Santa Fe between San Marcial and Las Cruces, which was the scene of much trouble this spring on account of the high waters of the Rio Grande. Two steam shovels have been put to work near San Marcial and the entire line between San Marcial and Las Cruces will be practically reconstructed. The work will give employment to several hundred men and when completed the track will be high and dry from the bed of the river, thus making it impossible for the flood waters of the river to cause trouble again.

The Farmington Hustler says: It is estimated by those in close touch with the railroad work that grading will be completed to Aztec within ten days and that track-laying will follow up close, except that at each of the bridges it will take about six days after the track is laid to that point. This is due to the fact the bridges are all formed up at the yards near Durango and are brought down on the construction train and put in place after the track is laid. These estimates figure that the trains will be running into Farmington by September 1st to 15th.

C. E. Van Loan, sporting editor of the Los Angeles Examiner, who made the record breaking trip across the continent with Walter Scott, on the Death Valley special, passed through the city Saturday night on his return to California. In conversation with a Citizen representative Van Loan stated that the trip was the most harrowing experience he had ever had, and that he would not make it again for love or money.

The reports to the general office of the El Paso-Northeastern at El Paso show an increase of over 1,000 pounds of wool over last season's shipments, and there is still two more weeks before the season closes. This shows that the New Mexico wool crop is better than ever this season. The Rock Island and Northeastern interests are being looked after by Traveling Freight Agent Tied Van Horn.

Manager W. H. Cheatham, of the Alvarado, accompanied by Mrs. Cheatham, left this morning for a short business trip to Kansas City and Chicago. Superintendent John Stein, of the Harvey system in New Mexico, arrived from Las Vegas last night and will have charge of the big hotel during the absence of Manager Cheatham.

Superintendent J. F. McNally, of the Rio Grande division, but who was transferred to Chanute, Kan., recently as assistant superintendent of the southern Kansas division of the road, has left for his new home. L. U. Morris, the new superintendent of the Rio Grande division, has entered upon his work.

George Nelson, traveling agent of the Santa Fe Refrigerator Dispatch, arrived in the city from his headquarters at La Junta last night. He met Manager J. S. Leeds of the company here this morning and returned to La Junta.

Attached to Santa Fe train No. 2 this morning was the private car of the Noble Stock company, a theatrical organization well known throughout the west. The company was en route to Las Vegas where it will play a week's engagement and then continue north into Colorado.

Indications are the El Paso-Northeastern road will soon pass into oblivion as far as its name is concerned. Both of the systems now owned by the Phelps Dodge syndicate will soon in all probability be known as the El Paso & Southwestern.

H. G. Parry, the Texas & Pacific passenger conductor, who was severely injured the other day at El Paso by being struck in the stomach with a brick thrown by some malicious person, has almost entirely recovered and is again able to go on his run.

Business car 412 arrived in Needles Saturday morning from San Bernardino. It has been remodeled and enlarged and will afford much better accommodations than the old car. The car is used by Superintendent John Denair on the Arizona division.

A. B. McGaffey, of Albuquerque, who is largely interested in real estate in Farmington, has been awarded the contract for the Farmington-Durango branch of the Denver & Rio Grande railroad now building.

Mrs. Fred Harvey, wife of the founder of the Harvey system, of Leavenworth, Kan., accompanied by her daughter and Mrs. J. F. Huckle, of Kansas City, is a guest at the Alvarado for a few days.

J. B. Leary, chief nurse of the surgical ward of the Santa Fe company hospital at Topeka, has returned to his duties after a short visit to the local hospital of the company.

J. F. Cogley, who injured his ankle some weeks ago by falling off a car while switching in the Needles Santa Fe yards, returned last week from the hospital entirely recovered.

Manager J. S. Leeds, of the Santa Fe Refrigerator Dispatch with headquarters in Chicago, passed through the city this morning en route from Los Angeles, Cal., to Chicago.

Mrs. S. B. Coen, wife of Foreman Coen of the Santa Fe car shops at this point, will leave tonight for a visit with her parents in Los Angeles. She will be accompanied by the children.

The seventh annual ball of Apache Lodge No. 245, Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, will be given in Elks' hall on the night of September 4.

Tomorrow, (Tuesday) afternoon, the First Street natorium will be reserved for ladies only.

LIBELERS PLACED UNDER BOND

MELITON AND ANASTACIO TORRES, OF SOCORRO, ARE TO AWAIT GRAND JURY ACTION.

As stated in the last issue of the Socorro Chieftain, Messrs. Meliton and Anastacio Torres, president and editor respectively of El Defensor del Pueblo, were arrested last Saturday afternoon on warrants issued out of Judge Amos E. Green's court, charging them with libeling Hon. Frank W. Parker, associate justice for the Third judicial district. The accused were taken before Judge Green, who released them under bond of $1,000 each to await the action of the grand jury.

The action was brought by District Attorney Elmer Baca, and the matter complained of as libelous, was contained in an article in last week's issue of El Defensor. The article was directed against the Chieftain, but the clause which Mr. Baca considered as libelous says that if the Chieftain is scandalized by the sentences of the court, it ought to check information from the lawyers, the judge, etc., and it will be convinced of bribery and political intrigue to condemn or to save criminals, not by the verdict of juries, but by other means, with which the partisan Chieftain is well acquainted.

For Over Sixty Years.

An old and well tried remedy—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for all disorders of the stomach and bowels. It is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, and take no other kind.

The Farmington Times-Hustler says: Mr. and Mrs. R. Marney had the exceptional misfortune to lose two of their children by death last week. One died Friday morning and the other Saturday. This is very unusual except in cases of contagious diseases, which was not the case in this instance. They also lost another child along in the winter. The sympathy of the community goes out to them.

Forced to Starve.

B. F. Leek, of Concord, Ky., says: "For 20 years I suffered agonies, with a sore on my upper lip. I tried many times that I could not eat. After vainly trying everything else, I cured it with Buckle's Arnica Salve. It's great for burns, cuts and wounds. At all druggists; only 25c."

Announcement has been made of the coming marriage of L. E. Monteleone and Miss Reine J. Monroe, which will occur on the first of August. They are well known in Santa Fe and have many friends who will extend hearty congratulations.

One Dollar Saved Represents Ten Dollars Earned.

The average man does not save to exceed ten per cent of his earnings. He must spend nine dollars in living expenses for every dollar saved. This being the case, he cannot be too careful about unnecessary expenses. Very often a few cents properly invested, like buying seeds for his garden, will save every dollar later on. It is the same in buying Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It few cents but a bottle of it in the house often saves a doctor's bill of several dollars. For sale by all dealers.

Prof. Hiram Hadley, superintendent of public instruction, and wife, are at Ashbury Park, N. J. They expect to reach Santa Fe the latter part of this month.
